Standing ovations for singers in The Music of the Night

MARBELLA. Last Saturday Marbella was the West End and Broadway rolled into one with the show Music of the Night starring and produced by tenor Stephen Lloyd-Morgan. Stephen was joined on stage by Adele Lee Peters, Raul D'Abreu, Lucy Indrisie and Julie-Anne Hunter to perform hits from favourite musicals including Jesus Christ Superstar to Hair, Evita, Grease and Mamma Mia as well as classical arias. More Music of the Night shows are planned for July and August.

Foreign media expert visits Press Club

MARBELLA The Costa Press Club held its April meeting at Los Naranjos Golf Club in Nueva Andalucía, where members were given a talk on the history of the foreign-language media in southern Spain. Laura López Romero, who is researching the subject at Malaga University, gave entertaining examples of the news provided for foreign residents as far back as 1915 when a newspaper called 'Los Aliados' ('The Allies') published news of World War 1 for French and British residents in Malaga. She also described an international conference on the subject of foreign language media and integration which is to be held at Malaga University in November.

Decorated bonnets reign at the RAF Association Easter Ball

MIJAS

The RAF Association Easter Ball was attended by 34 members at the Tamisa Golf Hotel recently.

Dinner was followed by musical entertainment from Karen Cooper and an Easter bonnet parade. This was won by the only man in the lineup, Simon Jordan, whose bonnet had been fashioned from the floral table display and a head scarf.

The night was rounded off by an impromptu display of flamenco dancing by the two waiters, Jesús and Antonio.

This was one of the association's events organised to raise funds to help the RAFA welfare work.

MP visits Conservatives Abroad

Sir Richard Ottaway MP was the guest speaker at the Conservatives Abroad lunch at Tamisa Golf Hotel last Friday. Sir Richard, who is standing down at the next election after 32 years in Parliament, took time from his busy schedule to visit the Costa del Sol to give an entertaining insight into the workings of Parliament. He said it had been a privilege and honour to serve under three Prime Ministers, all different in their own way, and to hold various government positions. He said he will miss the "buzz" but age comes to us all!

Sir Richard, an ex-Naval Officer, will be spending his retirement sailing and promoting his charity work. He is pictured below with Alex Radford, Chairman of C A (centre) and Lady Ottaway.
